

New Horizon School-Los Angeles Weekly Bulletin

Edition 1, Volume 2

October 8, 2007

Hey, that's News to Us!

Here are a few reminders:

- Due to the observance of Lailatul Qadr tonight, tomorrow will be a late start morning. Tuesday, October 9th, school will begin at 9 AM.
- The Eid Gift Exchange wrapped presents must be turned in to class teachers by Tuesday, October 9th.
- The Food & Toy Drive has been extended to Wednesday, October 10th.
- The Candy & Wrapping Paper sale has been extended. Please remember that all students are required to sell a minimum of 5 items. All paper work and checks must be turned in by Wednesday, October 10th.
- To celebrate Eid-ul-Fitr, the school will be closed on Thursday and Friday, October 11 and 12, 2007.

Ramadan News

Alhamdulillah, Ramadan is moving fast and we are enjoying this month with our students at school. We hope that you are having a spiritual and blessed time at home with your families, too. May Allah accept our fasting, prayers, and duas.

Ramadan is the month of giving and your donations are highly appreciated. The reward will be tenfold for donations given this month. We urge you to give your Zakat donations to the school. All donations are tax deductible.

Fall Mid-term Testing

Fall Mid-term Testing continues this week. Please make sure your children are getting enough rest, dressing warmly, and eating a healthy nutritious breakfast before they come to school to ensure their well being. Please make every effort to be on-time everyday. Testing ends on Wednesday, October 10th.

Eid-ul-Fitr

This year Eid-ul-Fitr will be observed on Saturday, October 13th. New Horizon School recommends families attend Eid prayers with the Islamic Center of Southern California's service with the community at the Los Angeles Convention Center. The prayer is at 10:00am with the Takbir beginning at 9:30am. Please see the flier sent home last week for more information or directions.

Eid Fun Day

The annual Eid Fun Day field trip to Chuck-e-Cheese is scheduled for Monday, October 15th. Please remember to return the permission slips this week.

Taraweh Childcare

Parent's this is a great opportunity to fulfil some of the mandatory service hours you need to complete. Volunteers are still needed for the last few nights of Taraweh, from 8:00pm to 10pm. Volunteering for these two hours can help you fulfil your service hour commitment.