Spring Fair

The Spring Fair was yesterday, Sunday, April 19th, 2009. As usual the Spring Fair was a hit amongst the community. There were several stalls selling delicious foods, drinks, snacks, desserts, clothing, books, and toys. It was extremely hot and most relished the icy snow cones, popsicles, and ice cream bars. We want to thank all the parents who brought items and volunteered time at the various stalls. You all deserve a round of applause for your efforts. We also want to thank the staff for all their hard work this weekend.

Service Hours

Parents please be aware that as we are half way done with the final trimester, the parent service hour commitment for this year will soon be due. All parents are required to volunteer 30/35 service hours for the school year. Those receiving Aasra / School Financial Aid are required to volunteer for 10 extra hours, in addition to those already required. Contact the office for service hour completion opportunities. Those who helped at the Spring Fair, log in your hours.

Interschool Spelling Bee

The 2009 Interschool Spelling Bee is on this Thursday, April 23rd, 2009. It will be held here at school. We will be hosting 11 other schools with over 100 students participating and over 100 guests.

The first and second place finishers from our school spelling bee will represent New Horizon School - Los Angeles in this prestigious competition. The 3rd, 4th, & 5th grade students will act as hosts for the various schools, showing them around, providing them with copies of the rules and guidelines, and giving them their snacks. Please come out and support our super spellers as they embark upon this spelling journey! Lunch will be sold on that day. Pre-sale lunch is $5 for chicken, rice, drink, and salad. Lunch sold on Thursday will be $7 each. So remember to order your lunch for $5 in the office by Tuesday, April 21, 2009. The PTO will be have a bake sale during this day.

Earth Day Celebration

Wednesday, April 22nd, 2009 is the official Earth Day. We at New Horizon School - Los Angeles celebrated it last Thursday. It was quite successful. The students enjoyed making and eating "Dirt Cups," participating in the Recycle Relay, listening to Earth Day stories, making their own Earth medals out of crayon and wax paper, and watching a video about the Earth. The students learned about pollution and human impact on Earth's resources as well as ways to help protect the Earth. Our students successfully identified which materials are recyclable and which are not.

PTO Meeting

The next PTO meeting will be on Friday, May 1, 2009 from 3:45-5:00 pm. During this meeting, the students of the month for April 2009 will be awarded their certificates. All the students who participated in the Interschool Spelling Bee will be recognized.
