Reminders

Parents, all accounts must be cleared with the office before you will receive your student's report card. If you haven't cleared your accounts yet, please stop by the office and do so.

Last Day of School

The last day of school is this Thursday, June 18th, 2009. Classes will be having class parties and cleaning up their classrooms. Make sure that students return all library books and textbooks to school to avoid any penalty fees that may apply for missing books. All school materials are due tomorrow and must be submitted before report cards will be distributed.

Summer Reading Assignments

Every year New Horizon School - Los Angeles assigns students a summer reading task. Students are required to read a minimum of 4 books and write a minimum of 3 book reports this summer. The book reports will be due on the first day of school to their new class teacher. The books must be from the Summer Reading List given out to all the students this week. The book reports must also be in the specific format given out to students this week.

Parents, please ensure that students do a minimum of 30 minutes of math each day as well as 30 minutes of reading each day in order to maintain their skills this summer.

Summer School

New Horizon School - Los Angeles is proud to offer two summer sessions this summer. The first session begins on Monday, June 29th, 2009. The second summer session begins on Monday, July 27th, 2009. The summer program includes religious studies, academics, & ample fun activities. Space is limited, so register now to reserve your student's place. Please see the office for more information.

NHSLA turns 25!!!

The 2009-2010 school year is an important year for New Horizon School - Los Angeles. This school year marks New Horizon School - Los Angeles' 25th birthday. New Horizon School was born in South Pasadena in 1984. In 1988, the school was moved to the Islamic Center and has been here ever since. In order to celebrate this auspicious occasion we will have a special 25th Anniversary Dinner on Saturday, November 21st, 2009. Mark this date on your calendars and plan to join us celebrate this amazing accomplishment!
