Parent-Teacher Conferences

Progress reports were distributed at yesterday's Parent-Teacher Conferences. If you haven't received your child's progress report because you were unable to attend, please see your child's teacher this week.

Please refrain from interrupting teachers on-duty to discuss your child's progress as they will not be fully prepared to do so. If you would like to discuss any particular concern, make an appointment to meet with your child's teacher during their office hours.
